(ENGLISH VERSION)

FIRST CALL FOR APPLICATIONS ERASMUS+ KA171
UNIVERSITY OF VALLADOLID
ACADEMIC YEAR 2023-2024
INCOMING MOBILITY FROM UKRAINE

The Vice-rectorate for Internationalisation hereby issues a call within the framework of the ERASMUS+ Programme (KA171 and KA131) for the 2023-2024 academic year targeting incoming students from Ukraine within the scope of (EU) regulation no. 1288/2013 of the European Parliament and Council of 11 December 2013 creating the ERASMUS+ programme.

- 24 grants for bachelor degree, master degree, or doctoral degree students from the partner universities from Ukraine of the Erasmus+ 2022-1-ES01-KA171-HED-000072505 project to undertake mobility stays during the 1st semester of the academic year 2023-2024 at the University of Valladolid

The present call describes the criteria for applicant participation in the various modalities following the guidelines established by the European Commission for this programme.

Point 6 of this call gives further details of the distribution of the financial support.

1ST POINT. GENERAL INFORMATION - ERASMUS+ KA171 PROGRAMME - INTERNATIONAL CREDIT MOBILITY PROJECT COORDINATED BY THE UNIVERSITY OF VALLADOLID:

1.- This project is the initiative of the European Commission in its International Dimension for the period 2021-2027. It is the continuation of the Erasmus+ KA107 projects, in force between 2014-2020 and which have been coordinated at the University of Valladolid since 2015. The funding institution is the European Commission through the Erasmus+ programme.

2.- Its main objectives are to establish cooperation links with partner countries as well as to exchange undergraduate, master and doctorate students and academic / administrative staff from the University of Valladolid and the Partners

3.- The Partners in the Project Erasmus+ KA171 are: <https://uvamobplus2.uva.es/publico/partners>

4.- The contact person at each university within the project Erasmus+ KA171 can be found in the following website: <https://uvamobplus2.uva.es/publico/contact>

5.- All the areas of study are eligible within this project Erasmus+ KA171 at the University of Valladolid.

2ND POINT. AIM

- 1) SMS mobility (Bachelor, Master and Phd students): the aim is to promote five-month stays for students of partner institutions of the Erasmus+ KA171 project at the University of Valladolid in order to undertake academic mobility that will help them to complete their curriculum at the home institution and will provide academic recognition at the home institution

3RD POINT. AMOUNT OF THE FINANCIAL SUPPORT AND BUDGET ITEM

1.- The maximum amount of support made available for each grant is 6,310 €.

2.- Beneficiaries will be given European financial support as a help towards the travel expenses and living expenses resulting from their stay in Spain during the period in which they engage in academic activities, based on the following parameters:

- Grant:
 - Student mobility: 850€ / month (5 months). TOTAL: 4,250 €
 - Additional Support to students with fewer opportunities*: 250€ / month (5 months). TOTAL: 1,250 €

* Due to the conflict in Ukraine, the European Commission and SEPIE (Erasmus+ National Agency in Spain) have established that students coming from Ukrainian institutions belong to the group of "students with fewer opportunities" and therefore they are entitled to receive the additional monthly support.

- Travel expenses: return ticket from the home institution to the University of Valladolid up to the maximum amount according to the Erasmus+ distance calculator:
 - Between 100 and 499 km: 180 € per participant
 - Between 500 and 1999 km: 275 € per participant
 - Between 2000 and 2999 km: 360 € per participant
 - Between 3000 and 3999 km: 530 € per participant
 - Between 4000 and 7999 km: 820 € per participant
 - Between 8000 and 19999 km: 1,500 € per participant

3.- The UVa will exempt participants from payment of public academic fees.

4.- The UVa will provide each student with comprehensive medical and travel assistance insurance up to a maximum value of 250 €.

5.- In cases where a visa application fee is required, UVa will provide each student with up to an additional 30 € visa fee.

6.- Supplementary financial support is available for beneficiaries with special needs. Applicants may contact the International Relations Office for information about this.

5.- In accordance with the provisions of current legislation on non-resident income tax (Royal Legislative Decree 5/2004 of 5 March, approving the revised text of the Non-Resident Income Tax Act) and in application of Article 14.1.b thereof, this allowance for travel expenses and normal living and subsistence expenses shall be exempt from taxation.

6.- The present call will be charged to the University of Valladolid budget application 180UNH-322BB01-480.05/chapter 2 (Erasmus+ Programme 2022-1-ES01-KA171-HED-000072505) and 180UNG-322BB04-480.05/capítulo 2ª (Erasmus+ Programme KA131 Project 2022-24) to the 2023 financial year and subsequently to the 2024 financial year. Concession thereof will be subject to there being appropriate and sufficient budget allocation

7.- The total amount of support provided in the calls is 151,440 euros.

4th POINT. REQUIREMENTS FOR PARTICIPATION

1.- The present call is open to students of partner institutions in Ukraine of the Erasmus+ 2022-1-ES01-KA171-HED-000072505 project who are enrolled both in the 2022-2023 and 2023-2024 academic years on an official bachelor's, master's or PhD degree that is valid throughout their country.

2.- In addition, in the case of bachelor's degree level students, they must have successfully completed at least their first year of studies.

3.- The area of studies chosen by the candidate for their mobility must be relevant to their studies at their home institution. The list of courses offered by the University of Valladolid for this call may be found at the following link <https://uvamobplus2.uva.es/publico/courses>

4.- Applications from students who have previously undertaken an Erasmus+ stay for a period of over seven months at the same academic level as is being applied for shall not be deemed admissible.

5th POINT. CONDITIONS APPLICABLE TO MOBILITY

1.- The academic stay will last for up to five months at the University of Valladolid. Shorter stays of less than one academic semester may not be undertaken.

2.- Financial support is available for activities commencing in the first term of the 2023-2024 academic year (from September 2023 till February 2024). In exceptional cases, it could be authorised to carry out the mobility in the second semester of the academic year 2023-2024 (from February 2024 to July 2024) at the University of Valladolid.

3.- Must maintain their status as students at their home institution for the full duration of the grant awarded to them at the University of Valladolid.

4.- Once all of the information has been provided and the documents uploaded, a receipt will be generated which must be signed and also upload onto the UVAMOBPLUS platform in order to conclude the application. The whole process should be carried out online through the webpage <https://uvamobplus2.uva.es/>. Applications may not be sent by email or fax.

5.- Before sending the application, make sure the following have been checked:

- Participation requirements and eligibility criteria.
- Distribution of financial support by the home country
- Courses available at the University of Valladolid. Only courses which are available and only one may be applied for.
- All the required documents have been scanned and are in English or Spanish.
- The signed application receipt has been uploaded and the online application procedure has been completed.

6.- The University of Valladolid will register candidates' applications in accordance with Law 39/2015 of 1 October, concerning the common administrative procedure governing public administration.

7.- Any notification that should have been linked to this call will be made electronically in accordance with the provisions of art. 41.1 of Law 39/2015, of October 1, of the Common Administrative Procedure of Public Administrations and of the Regulation of Electronic Notifications and Communications of the University of Valladolid, approved by the Governing Council in session of June 28, 2019, BOCyL (official regional gazette) No. 120 of July 8.

8th POINT. FALSE INFORMATION IN THE APPLICATIONS

1.- Incomplete information, false information in the documents or missing documents will lead to the financial support applied for being rejected or rescinded and will, in the latter case, entail the return of any amounts paid, in addition to any other responsibilities which such circumstances may give rise to.

9TH POINT. SELECTION CRITERIA AND PROCESS:

1.- Grants will be awarded on a direct award basis with nomination of the Home Institution of the selected candidates, provided that the number of grants distributed by country and University is sufficient to cover the number of applications, in accordance with the provisions of 6th Point.

2.- The selection process will comprise two stages:

- Formal validation and evaluation of candidates: it will be carried out by the home institution, by checking all the documentation provided. Validated candidates will be evaluated internally, according to their internal rules and following the rules of the Erasmus+ KA171 Programme:
 - Academic record (or research record in the case of a PhD): 60%
 - Motivation: 20%
 - Relevance of the proposal: 20%
- On the basis of the final score obtained, the International Relations Office of each sending institution must propose its selected candidates in order of priority, by nomination, and must also provide the list of reserves (if any).

3.- The acceptance process prior to the resolution, at the University of Valladolid, will comprise two stages:

- The suitability of the nominated candidates will be reviewed by the International Relations Coordinators (or academic programme coordinators if applicable) of the centre or study programme applied for. The same criteria as above (Academic record, Motivation and Relevance of the proposal) and with the same weighting will be taken into account. Each nominated candidate will have a score assigned by the coordinators and a positive or negative evaluation to be assessed.

The International Relations Service will submit a reasoned proposal of resolution, with the positive evaluations for mobility and the negative evaluations to reject the mobility, to the International Relations Commission of the University of Valladolid, which will issue a binding report prior to the final resolution.

4.- Should the offer of academic place entail a language requirement, this will be specified in the list of places offered. Language requirements will not be taken into account in the selection but are a sine qua non requirement.

5.- In the event of a tie, preference will be given to disadvantaged students, those with disabilities or socioeconomically disadvantaged applicants.

6.- The evaluation committee's actions shall comply with the stipulations set down in articles 15 et seq. of Law 40/2015, of 1 October, of the Legal System governing the Public Sector.

10th POINT. OBLIGATIONS OF GRANTHOLDERS:

1.- Grantholders have the following obligations:

- To accept in writing the grant award, the rules and conditions set out in the call as well as the criteria established by the University of Valladolid within 15 natural days, commencing the day after publication of the decision governing the call. The model of acceptance for the grant will be available in the beneficiary's private area on the platform of the <https://uvamobplus2.uva.es/> programme and, once it has been signed, should be uploaded in the same place within the period stipulated.
- To follow the steps indicated in the Erasmus+ KA171 Orientation Guide to prepare the mobility, and that will be available in each beneficiary's private area.
- In the case of bachelor's and master's degrees, the beneficiary should prepare a Learning Agreement, for a minimum of 20 ECTS and a maximum of 30 ECTS at the University of Valladolid and which must perforce be academically recognised at the home institution. This amount may not be calculated using courses that have already been taken and passed at the home institution. For doctoral students, a Learning Agreement for a number of hours work on the doctoral thesis that is similar to a full semester (30 ECTS = 750 hours) should be prepared. Activities undertaken at the University of Valladolid must have academic recognition at the home institution. This learning agreement will be available in each beneficiary's private area and must be completed and duly signed at least 30 days prior to the start of the activities.
- To give the International Relations office at least 15 days prior notification of the day of their arrival at the University of Valladolid by sending an email to ka171.erasmusplus@uva.es so that they may be called to a welcome and orientation meeting.
- To submit the Erasmus+ grant agreement for the 2023-2024 academic year signed at the welcome and orientation meeting. The model of the Erasmus+ grant agreement will be available in each beneficiary's private area once the grant has been accepted. Students must also hand in the originals of the boarding cards together with the travel tickets used to get to the University of Valladolid from the home institution.
- To commence the chosen studies at the University of Valladolid within a maximum of one week after they start. Students who fail to begin the course within the stipulated period shall be understood to have renounced the grant.
- To live in the cities of the University of Valladolid campus throughout the whole period for which they have received the grant, even in the case of blended studies or doctoral studies.

Universidad de Valladolid

Cofinanciado por

- To open a bank account in Spain in which they appear as the account holder and through which they will be paid the monthly allocation of their grant. This account should be opened after they receive their first payment at the welcome and orientation meeting.
- To attend all the follow-up meetings to which they are convened and which are organised by the International Relations Office.
- In the case of bachelor's and master's degrees, their academic performance must be satisfactory, and they must attend at least 90% of the lessons for which they are enrolled. The International Relations Office will periodically check these details with each beneficiary's academic coordinator. Failure to attend lessons without just cause may entail cancellation of the grant and being required to return to the home country.
- To request authorisation from the International Relations Office to go on any trips during term time, as stipulated in the official UVA academic calendar corresponding to the academic year in question.
- To fill in, within 30 days prior to the conclusion of the stay, the Erasmus+ survey sent by the European Commission. Failure to complete this survey will lead to cancellation of the final payment of 20% of the Erasmus+ grant
- To notify the International Relations Office in writing of their decision to renounce the grant, as well as any other relevant changes that might affect its conditions.
- Grant holders have access to the same services and are subject to the same rules as other University of Valladolid students. As a result, the same disciplinary regime, rights, obligations, rules and regulations in academic matters and in everything related to their stay on university premises, shall apply to them as to other official students.

11th POINT. PROCEDURES BEFORE AND AFTER THE MOBILITY

1.- Each beneficiary will be notified by email for them to accept their grant and they will be informed of the details required to access their private area at <https://uvamobplus2.uva.es/> where they will find a section with the documents related to their mobility as well as full guides on information and help.

2.- Before the start of the mobility, the beneficiary must upload in their private area the following documents duly filled in and signed:

- Mobility Agreement for Studies (Learning Agreement)

3.- At the start of the mobility, each beneficiary must, after making an appointment, go to the International Relations Office at the University of Valladolid with the Erasmus+ Grant Agreement duly completed and with the original signature to be submitted in person at said service's offices. This will signal the official start of the Erasmus+ KA171 grant. This document may be accepted electronically signed.

4.- At the end of their stay, the beneficiary of the grant must fill in and send the online EU survey within 30 calendar days after having received the invitation to complete it. The institution may require participants who fail to fill in and send the online EU survey to reimburse in part or in full the amount of financial support received.

12th POINT. PROCEDURE FOR PAYMENT OF THE FINANCIAL SUPPORT

1.- The grant will be paid in four payments by cheque and transfer to the corresponding current account, in accordance with the regulations set out in Law 5/2008, of 25 September governing grants in the autonomous region of Castilla y León, in the regulations governing the execution of the university budget, in the following terms:

- 50% by cheque, at the start of the stay.
- Travel costs, according to the Erasmus+ Distance Calculator, by bank transfer to a Spanish bank account, before the end of the second month of stay
- 30% by bank transfer to a Spanish bank account, before the end of the third month of the stay
- 20% by bank transfer to a Spanish bank account, before the end of the fourth month of the stay

2.- In order to receive payment, the documents required by the Erasmus+ programme, and which those selected will be notified of together with the letter of concession, must be submitted.

3.- Beneficiaries are required to inform the International Relations Office of any changes in the conditions taken into account that led to the awarding of the grant and which were included in the decision, such as those concerning the conferring of the grants set out in the following section.

Universidad de Valladolid

Cofinanciado por
la Unión Europea

13TH POINT. INCOMPATIBILITIES:

1.- The support provided in the present call is compatible with any other public or private grant or support awarded for the same purpose, except those from the European Union.

14TH POINT. RENOUNCEMENT

1.- Should a beneficiary renounce a grant awarded to them, they should do so in writing and through the register, in accordance with article 16.4 of Law 39/2015, governing common administrative procedure for public administration, in which case the vacant position may be allocated to a replacement, as set out in the stipulations for the decision governing this call.

2.- The deadline for submission of renouncement is 31 October 2023. Should the renouncement not be submitted before said date and/or should the grant not have been used within the established deadline, the beneficiary may be penalised by being denied an ERASMUS + grant during the following academic year.

3.- Should voluntary renouncement be submitted outside the deadline, said penalty shall not be applied in the event of one of the causes listed below:

1. Illness or serious accident suffered by the applicant.
2. Illness or death of an immediate family member.
3. Obligation to fulfil a public duty.
4. Any other cause that is sufficiently accredited and justified in the opinion of the International Relations Committee.

15th POINT. FAILURE TO COMPLY ON THE PART OF THE BENEFICIARY AND PENALTY SYSTEM:

1.- Should the beneficiary fail to comply with the terms stipulated for the grant, the relevant legislation set out in Section IV of Law 5/2008, of 25 September, governing grants in the autonomous region of Castilla y León shall apply.

2.- Given the nature of the grant, recipients shall be obliged to reimburse in full the amount received and shall be required to pay the corresponding late interest, as stipulated in article 37.1 of general Law 38/2003, of 17 November, governing grants.

3.- The amounts to be reimbursed shall be considered public duty revenue rights, for repayment of which the stipulations set out in the regulations governing the law on public treasury and public sector duty revenue rights in the region of Castilla y León shall apply.

4.- The system covering infringements and penalties in the matter of grants set out in Section V of Law 5/2008, of 25 September shall apply.

16TH POINT. DECISION ON THE CALL.

1. The procedure for awarding the grant shall be deemed to have commenced ex officio through the present call.

2.- The competent body for managing and organising the procedure as well as for dealing with the grants is the International Relations Office.

3.- The competent body for issuing decisions is the Vice-rectorate's office for Internationalisation, by delegation from the Rector's office, in accordance with Rectorate Resolution of 26 August 2020 (BOCYL [official regional gazette] no. 181 of 2 September) delegating the Rector's competences to various single-person bodies at the University of Valladolid, subsequent to a binding report issued by the International Relations committee based on the reports received from the assessment committee.

3.- Against this decision, which concludes the administrative channel, a contentious-administrative appeal may be brought before the contentious-administrative court of Valladolid within two months, beginning the day after its publication on the previously mentioned electronic notice board of the university. Optionally, an appeal for reversal may be filed with the rectorate within the period of one month commencing on the same date (articles 8.2 and 13 of Law 29/1998, of 13 July, of contentious-administrative jurisdiction, with regard to article 123 of Law 39/2015, of 1 October, governing common administrative procedure for public administration). In said instances, the previously mentioned contentious-administrative appeal may not be filed until such time as a specific decision has been taken or until the implied rejection concerning the appeal for reversal.

4.- The decision on the call shall be taken within a period of no more than three months after the day on which the deadline for submission of applications concludes. Once said period has concluded without the decision having been published, applications may be deemed to have been rejected in the terms set out under Law 39/2015, governing common administrative procedure for public administration.

5.-The International Relations Office will publish the decision concerning the present call in the electronic office of the Uva and, for the purposes of information, on its webpage <http://www.relint.uva.es> and on <https://uvamobplus2.uva.es/>

17TH POINT. LINKS AND DATA PROTECTION.

1.- Personal data shall be processed in strict adherence to the stipulations set out under (EU) regulation 2016/679 of the European Parliament and Council, of 27 April 2016, on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data and repealing Directive 95/46/CE (General Data Protection Regulation) and Organic Law 3/2018, of 5 December, on the Protection of Personal Data and guaranteeing of digital rights.

2.- Further information concerning the handling of personal data may be found in Annex 1

18TH POINT. LEGAL RULES:

1.- This call is based on the resolution taken on 2 February 2021 by the rectorate office of the University of Valladolid, through which the publication is ordered of the regulatory bases governing the calls for mobility support and complementary measures geared towards students at the University of Valladolid and partner universities (official gazette of Castilla y León of 9 of February 2021)

2.- Likewise, the Constitution of 1978, the Organic Law 6/2001, of 21 December, on Universities, the Law 39/2015, of 1 October, on the Common Administrative Procedure of Public Administrations, the Law 40/2015, of 1 October, on the Legal Regime of the Public Sector, the Statutes of the University of Valladolid, approved by Agreement 104/2003, of 10 July, of the Government of Castile and León, as well as the Law 38/2003, of 1 October, on the Common Administrative Procedure of Public Administrations, the Law 40/2015, of 1 October, on the Legal Regime of the Public Sector, the Statutes of the University of Valladolid, approved by Agreement 104/2003, of 10 July, of the Government of Castile and León, as well as Law 38/2003, of 17 November, General Subsidies, Royal Decree 887/2006, of 21 July, approving the Regulations of Law 38/2003, of 17 November, General Subsidies, in its basic aspects, and Law 5/2008, of 25 September, on Subsidies of Castilla y León, the Budgetary Execution Rules of the University Budget as well as the remaining rules applicable by reason of the matter.

19TH POINT. FINAL PROVISION:

1.- For any matters not regulated in these bases, Law 39/2015, governing common administrative procedure for public administration, Law 38/2003, of 17 November, governing general grants, Law 5/2008, of 25 September, governing grants in the region of Castilla y León, and the regulations governing execution of the university budget, as well as any other pertinent legislation shall be applied.

2.- Consistent with the values of gender equality assumed by the university, any names which appear in this call in the masculine gender, when they have not been replaced by generic terms, shall be understood to refer also indistinctly to the feminine gender.

3.- Participation in the call applying for support shall entail the applicant's full acceptance of the content thereof.
